

Worker Training Confirmation

Use this form to document the training you do with new workers and family members, when sending them or yourself for additional training, and for updating current and changing safety issues.

_____, a newly hired worker, has been verbally trained on farm safety for the task of _____ and has been given written information of which there is a copy on file.

Brief Description of Training

Trainee verification _____

Instructor verification _____

Date: _____

Location: _____

Written information could include written instructions, a fact sheet or booklet that pertains to the safety issues of the task for which they have received instruction.